

Seeking 6-year-olds to help us study child development!

How do children manage their own and others' reputations?
How do they decide who should lend a helping hand?

We are running studies right now to answer these questions!

Your child will play fun games with puppets and a researcher, and then answer questions about what happened

- Single, 1-hour visit
- Free parking on UMD campus
- Siblings welcome during visit
- Children receive small prizes
- Weekday and weekend time slots
